

Terry Crigger was born in North Carolina but has lived in Northern Kentucky for most of his life. His wife, Cindy, was born in Charlottesville, Virginia. Terry and Cindy met while at Oral Roberts University in Tulsa, Oklahoma. Terry has an undergraduate degree in History and Secondary Education from Northern Kentucky University and a Masters of Divinity Degree from Oral Roberts University. Cindy has an undergraduate degree from Oral Roberts University and a Masters' Degree from Wheaton College, both in Counseling Psychology. Terry and Cindy have two daughters, Ashley and Haley, and three granddaughters named Rya Faith, Sophia Jude and Stella James. Terry has been the Senior Pastor at Christ's Chapel in Erlanger, Kentucky, since the church began January of 1986.

Ordained with the Assemblies of God since 1985, Terry currently serves as the Kentucky Assistant Superintendent, a General Presbyter, and the Church Planting and Revitalization Director.

