SUMMER 2024

A word from our Superintendent

KMN Family,

God calls each and every one of us. In Matthew 4:19, Jesus said, "Come, follow me." God is an inviting God. He invited Mary to birth his Son, the disciples to fish for men, the adulterous woman to start over, and Thomas to touch his wounds. God is the King who prepares the palace, sets the table, and invites his subjects to come in. Max Lucado said, "It seems his favorite word is 'Come.'"

Friends, let's go. And, let's take someone with us.

"CHRIST HAS NO HANDS BUT OURS."

Rev. Terry Crigger
KMN ASST. SUPERINTENDENT

tcrigger@christschapel.net

F Following World War II, some German students volunteered to help rebuild a cathedral in England, one that had been badly damaged by the Luftwaffe bombings. As the work progressed, they were unsure how to best restore a large statue of Jesus with his arms outstretched and bearing the familiar inscription, "Come unto Me." The repair was complete except for Christ's hands that had been completely destroyed. They asked the question, 'Should we attempt to rebuild the destroyed hands or determine another option?' Finally, the workers reached a decision to leave the hands off the statue and change the inscription to read: "Christ has no hands but ours."

The call of God for all believers is to be the hands of Christ in a broken world. For some of us, that 'calling' leads to a pastoral or professional type of ministry. Yet the primary calling set forth in scripture is that all saints would step into a lifestyle of serving and sacrifice, offering who we are and what we have for the work of the Lord.

Moses learned this lesson when God asked him, 'What is that in your hands,' referring to the staff he carried. For Moses, his staff represented his identity (being a shepherd), his income (that shepherding was his source of provision), and his influence (as Moses guided and protected sheep with his staff). Moses discovered that God's calling is an invitation to offer the most common things of life—our identity, income, and influence—for the good of others.

There's an old story about a man walking along the shore after a big storm had passed to find the vast beach littered with starfish. He noticed a young boy approaching occasionally bending down to pick up one of those starfish and throw it back into the ocean. The man asked the child, 'Why?' He answered, "When the sun gets high, these starfish will die unless I throw them back into the water." The man replied, "But there are thousands of starfish on this beach. I'm afraid you won't really be able to make much of a difference." The boy bent down, picked up yet another starfish and threw it as far as he could into the ocean. Then he turned, smiled and said, "It made a difference to that one!"

A destroyed statue. A wooden staff. A single starfish. All reminders of why God calls us into his service. May we be faithful to that call!

By the grace of God,

Terry Crigger

THE SPIRIT IS NECESSARY

Rev. Darren Lewis
KMN SECRETARY/TREASURER

dlewis@kyag.org

E Every believer is called. Often, we use that term to refer to vocational ministry, which is, of course, a very important aspect. However, there is also a calling to secular vocations. We need Christ's followers in every aspect of our lives. I, for one, am thankful for a physician who loves Jesus.

As ministers, we should affirm everyone's calling, recognizing that not all are called to pastoral ministry. I used to tell my students, don't stoop to be a doctor if you are called to be a pastor. Don't stoop to be a pastor if you are called to be a doctor. The point is that we need Christian leaders who are Spirit-led in all aspects of our lives. That requires us to continue teaching and practicing the baptism of the Holy Spirit.

While I cannot cover all of the intricacies of our Pneumatology here, let me give five reasons why the Spirit-filled life is essential to all who are called.

First, Greater Witness

Acts 1:8 "But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you. And you will be my witnesses, telling people about me everywhere—in Jerusalem, throughout Judea, in Samaria, and to the ends of the earth." NLT

Second, Greater Worship

1 Corinthians 14:25 "As they listen, their secret thoughts will be exposed, and they will fall to their knees and worship God, declaring, 'God is truly here among you.'" NLT

Third, Greater Prayer

Romans 8:26-27 "And the Holy Spirit helps us in our weakness. For example, we don't know what God wants us to pray for. But the Holy Spirit prays for us with groanings that cannot be expressed in words. And the Father who knows all hearts knows what the Spirit is saying, for the Spirit pleads for us believers in harmony with God's own will." NLT

Fourth, Greater Holiness

Galatians 5:22-23 "But the Holy Spirit produces this kind of fruit in our lives: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. There is no law against these things!" NLT

Fifth, Greater Unity

Ephesians 4:3-6 "Make every effort to keep yourselves united in the Spirit, binding yourselves together with peace. For there is one body and one Spirit, just as you have been called to one glorious hope for the future. There is one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is over all, in all, and living through all." NLT

We do not have the power to fulfill our calling outside of the Spirit's empowerment. Our greatest need is for the Spirit to be active in our daily lives. Be open to how the Spirit wants to move in your life. Welcome Him in and ask for His participation. I can assure you I need the Holy Spirit in my life.

WELCOME!

Rodney Goodlett KMN Missions Director

KMN
KENTUCKY MINISTRY NETWORK

On behalf of the Kentucky Ministry Network, I am happy to announce the Presbytery's Ratification of my newest departmental leadership appointment, that of our KMN Missions Director, Pastor Rodney Goodlett. Rodney and Amie will officially begin their term as Missions Director, July 1, 2024.

Rodney is Lead Pastor of KMN's strongest missions giving church (2023), London Faith AG. He holds his BA in Pastoral Ministries from Central Bible College, and his MA in Organizational Leadership from Evangel University. His extensive background in missions leadership, as an AGUSM missionary himself, then as the KMN District Youth Director and Director of Camp Crestwood, ... then in development, planning, strategic logistics, and coordination of missions resources through the years enhances his effective call to missionaries and their work globally. His numerous world travels and leading teams across the nations will be a further win for KMN pastors and churches.

We welcome Rodney and Amie Goodlett as KY's District/Network Missions Directors.

Pastor Joe & Reneé Girdler

Amie and I are honored to serve our KMN churches, pastors, and missionaries. We appreciate Pastor Joe and his appointment to this role. Kentucky has a rich heritage of fulfilling the great commission and our Assemblies of God vision to commit "the Movement to Him for the greatest evangelism that the world has ever seen." We love the KMN family and we are thankful for this opportunity to serve.

We believe in our missions strategy to send, evangelize, disciple, and build the indigenous church. We also believe in the prophetic of Matthew 6:21, "For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also." AG missions is more than just a strategy to evangelize the world; it is an avenue to disciple our congregants. As we create opportunities for our people to listen to the voice of God prompting them to give and go, I believe their faith and our churches will grow as a result.

We are looking forward to developing a team to serve and lead Kentucky Ministry Network's missions endeavors.

RESOURCING THE NEXT GENERATION

*KMN Superintendent/Network Pastor
Joseph S. Girdler, DMin*

jgirdler@kyag.org

On August 16 & 17, 2024, KMN is hosting CALLED CONFERENCE. Our heart is committed to continuing the legacy of training and resourcing the next generation of ministry leaders for the United States and abroad. The time together – for those sensing the call to ministry in their future – is an immersion experience where the Holy Spirit can set apart those calls for kingdom work. Not all ministry will be in or from the pulpit. In today's rapidly changing culture, market place ministry, developed through lasting relationship with Christ and nurtured tools for impact, is seeing countless lives changed globally.

If you or the young leaders in your home or church are asking if there is more for your story, or wondering what God might have planned for your life, then this is for you! I assure you, you have a place in the Kingdom! Heath Adamson, senior director of National Youth Ministries said, "One of the greatest gifts we have in the Assemblies of God is when a leader uses his/her influence, authority, position, and resource to steward the next generation of leaders." In our KMN churches are tomorrows pastors, church leaders, business owners, doctors, lawyers, social workers, teachers, counselors, revivalists, intercessors, apostles, prophets, chaplains, and missionaries. As leaders, let's help them dream their dreams and see reality come to pass.

Hundreds of kids and teens annually sense a call to ministry for their future. After summer camps or anointed moments in their youth group services or churches they then wander away simply because they are unsure of what it meant or what they should do. The ministry call is a unique call. There are no SAT scores, assessments or placement tests, to determine their call. Simply, God plants in the heart of those who have ears to hear.

Here are three questions to ask when distinguishing God's calling:

1. What are the things I am passionate about?
2. What particular gifts has God given me?
3. Where and in doing what would I have the utmost chance to love others?

And, how do you answer God's call to ministry?

Set aside our own plans and allow God to speak. If you are open to hear Him, ask of Him, He will respond. Be attentive. Be humble, with reverence ... Be compliant ... Be persistent ... Pray.

God will use your personal story. Everyone has a unique story. He'll use your education, your job experiences, your life experiences ... and He will likely lead you to places you could never expect – all to impact others.

Are you ready? Listen for His call.

>> "Jesus...called to him those he wanted, and they came...He appointed twelve that they might be with him and that he might send them out to preach..." (Mark 3:13-15).

Twenty-two years ago this month, Jesus called me into the ministry. I was a PK, and my mom was my youth pastor. She took our youth group to the Branded by Fire Conference in Pensacola, Florida, hosted by the Brownsville Revival School of Ministry (#IYKYK).

Jeanne Mayo preached about being a bondservant of Christ on Monday. At the altar, Jesus asked me, "Will you be my bondservant for life?" I answered, "Yes!"

Chad Varga preached on denying yourself, taking up your cross, and following Jesus on Tuesday. At the altar, Jesus asked me, "Will you surrender your dreams to me?" I answered, "Yes!"

Michael Rowan preached on choosing a lifelong covenant with God on Wednesday.

At the altar, no questions—a call. Jesus said, "Preach My Word to My people!" Same answer: "Yes!"

I'm thankful for moments like these. I'm more thankful for the people God has used to disciple, train, and coach me over the past two decades-plus. And the longer I follow Jesus on this journey of life in ministry, the more excited I am about investing in others who are called, the way so many have invested in me. No matter the question, no matter the call, keep saying "Yes!" to Jesus, friends!

God calls each of us differently into ministry. Moses was called before the burning bush, while Peter and his companions after a long unsuccessful night fishing. I came to Christ in 1998, toward the end of the year while attending the University of Kinshasa, Democratic Republic of the Congo. A friend shared with me the four spiritual Laws used by Campus for Christ. This is where it all started. In 1999 I did my first 3-month training, received a certificate, and remained under the supervision of the elders and the pastor. I made a covenant with God that if He helped me to study without failing I would serve Him for the rest of my life. I was vice president and president of the evangelization commission, trainer, and mentor of new believers.

In 2012 I decided to go to seminary. But before going to seminary, I served by vocation as a preacher in the cells, and in the church, I was vice president and president of the young people in the cell, vice president, and president of the district assembly. God by his destiny allowed me to come to the USA in 2017. In 2019, I met Pastor Muller Malonda of C3AG Franchaphone, Louisville, KY. It was during an invitation from Pastor Darren to attend SAY YES WEEKEND, that God resurrected again in me the flame of the ministry. I responded to what God says in Matthew 28:18-20.

On April 23, at NetCon24, I received my License credentials with the Assemblies of God and I will continue working toward my ordination by attending KSOM (Kentucky School of Ministry).

I say nothing is by chance.

W.K.

Rev. Wilfried Khiembo

Dieu appelle chacun de nous différemment au ministère. Moïse fut appelé devant le buisson ardent, tandis que Pierre et ses compagnons après une longue nuit de pêche infructueuse. Je suis venu en Christ en 1998, vers la fin de l'année, alors que j'étudiais à l'Université de Kinshasa. Un ami m'a partagé les quatre lois spirituelles utilisées par Campus for Christ. C'est là que tout a commencé, après une formation de 3 mois, j'ai reçu un certificat, et je suis resté sous la supervision des anciens et du pasteur. J'ai fait une alliance avec Dieu qui m'a aidé à étudier sans échec et je le servirai pour le reste de ma vie. J'ai été vice-président et président de la commission d'évangélisation, formateur et mentor des nouveaux croyants.

En 2012, j'ai décidé d'aller au séminaire. Mais avant d'aller au séminaire, j'ai servi par vocation comme prédicateur dans les cellules, et dans l'église, j'ai été vice-président et président des jeunes de cellule, vice-président et président de l'assemblée du district. Dieu par sa destinée m'a permis de venir aux USA en 2017. En 2019, j'ai rencontré le pasteur Muller Malonda du C3AG Franchaphone, Louisville, KY. C'est lors d'une invitation du pasteur Darren à assister à DITES OUI, que Dieu a ressuscité en moi la flamme du ministère. J'ai répondu à ce que Dieu dit dans Matthieu 28:18-20.

Cette année, j'ai reçu ma licence et je continuerai à travailler en vue de mon ordination en fréquentant le KSOM, avec les Assemblées de Dieu.

Je dis que rien n'est par hasard.
